

"ALONG THE RACCOON TRAIL"

(A pageant of the history of Alexandria and St. Albans Township.)

Written by - Robert Price 1830 - 1930
Compiled by - Janet Brooks 1930 - 1980

The Pageant:

Episode One - "The Coming of the White Man"
First Interlude - "The March of the Pioneers"
Episode Two - "The Founding of Alexandria"
Second Interlude - "The March of Industry"
Episode Three "The Years of Happiness"
Third Interlude "The Underground Railroad"
Episode Four "The Years of Sadness"
Fourth Interlude "The Joyous Times"

Intermission - Alexandria Community Chorus
"Beautiful Dreamer"
"Down In The Valley"
"Aura Lee/Love Me Tender"
"Battle Hymn of the Republic"
"Amazing Grace"

Episode Five "Times of the Centennial"
Episode Six "Times of Growth and Change"
Episode Seven "Years of War"
Episode Eight "Builders of Today"
Scene One "Library"
Scene Two "Parker Park"
Scene Three "Service Club"
Scene Four "The Birthday of our Nation"
Scene Five "Mill Stone"
Scene Six "Museum"
Scene Seven "Covered Bridge"
Scene Eight "'78 Blizzard"
Scene Nine "Present Day Builders"

Finale "Building of the Future"

Art Work: Irma Hawkins Marty Francisco
Pat Bishop Melissa Hastings
Betty Blackburn

We wish to express our thanks to the entire cast. Their names will be listed in the local newspapers and they will be put in the Archives at The Alexandria Library.